Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they do not include the following reference sign(s) mentioned in the description: 58. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

5. Claims 1, 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Neumann et al. or Neumann et al. in view of Schmidt et al.

Neumann et al. has the instrument panel assembly with a recessed display chamber 9, a video display panel 10 mounted therein, a pivot link assembly 12 with first pivot at 22 and a panel 12 at outer face of the pivot link assembly with second pivot end at 17. The pivot link assembly/panel 12 is pivotable between a display hidden and a display exposed position and covers the chamber 9 when in display hidden position. Neumann et al. do not detail controls on the panel 12, however they teach that a pivoting trim panel 2 may have control and function elements thereon (paragraph 0025). Accordingly, It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to provide in Neumann et al. controls for the juxtaposed display in a convenient location on a pivotal panel 12 as taught by Neumann et al.

Alternatively, Schmidt et al. teach that a pivotal panel 12 may have controls mounted thereon. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to provide in Neumann et al. controls on a pivotal panel as taught by Schmidt et al. in order to easily access the content of the display screen.

6. Claims 4-5, 7-8, 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Neumann et al. or Neumann et al. in view of Schmidt et al.

As to claim 4, retaining detents to hold items in position are of common knowledge in the art.

As to claim 5, flexible cables for moving displays are common knowledge in the art.

As to claims 7-8, 10 control buttons on a panel outer surface and navigation displays are common knowledge in the art.

All of these common knowledge items are used for their well known advantages in this environment.

Applicant may seasonally challenge, for the official record in this application, this and any other statement of judicial notice in timely manner in response to this office action. Please specify the exact statement to be challenged. Applicant is reminded, with respect to the specific challenge put forth, of the duty of disclosure under Rule 56 to disclose material which is pertinent to patentability including claim rejections challenged by applicant.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 11-20 are allowed.
8. Claims 3, 6, 9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
9. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:
Claim 18 is indicated as allowable for the limitation "... to a display exposed position... exposing a video display panel assembly mounted within a recessed display chamber" in the combination set forth.
Claim 11 is indicated as allowable for the limitations to the guide slot and roller support in the combination set forth.

Conclusion

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Shibata et al., Emerling et al., and Ito et al. are cited to show further display and control details.
